THE SCHOOL AT SARDIS.

in the County"- Improvements Contemplated.

A representative of the BULLETIN writes that ancient Sardis is proud to report to her county that she, under the trusteeship of 'Squire J. H. Grigsby, 'Squire' John M. Ball and Andrew Wells, has one of the best schools she ever enjoyed. Her citizens were made to fully appreciate it last week when County Superin-LIGHT rains fell at headwaters Mon- tendent L. W. Galbraith congratulated them as having "one of the best schools in the county.'

The trustees are zealously discharging their duties, and earnestly talk of erecting an elegant school building. This THE next meeting of the Bracken Sardis has long favored and badly needed, County Teachers' Association will be held but has never been able to do more than
